Have a look at the CEOP resources to ensure that you have the best parental controls on your devices at home to safeguard your children.

Baby Flynn, congratulations to Jen Bowes-Taylor.

Amy Charman will be working with Adrienne Walton to teach Blackbirds from September whilst Jen is on maternity leave.

We currently are advertising for a Newly Qualified Teacher to join us in September too.

We will also be welcoming back Charley Smith (class teacher) and Heather Nichols (Teaching assistant and Midday Assistant) following their maternity leave. Both members of staff will be back with us in July

Other news:

National Book Tokens are running a scheme which could result in schools gaining £5000 worth of books. If you log on to the following website you can find out more:

<https://www.nationalbooktokens.com/schools>

First Bus:

Working with both Parkside and Avenue Junior we are pleased to have a First Bus sited on the field so that all of our pupils can find out more about using buses and other forms of public transport. The children will learn about safety, how to hail a bus and about the drivers cab.

Lost Property:

As the weather is very changeable we are gathering a HUGE pile of lost property. Please feel free to come in and check the pile for anything that you might have lost.

We will put items out in the front of school over the next few weeks but items will then be taken to the charity shop if they remain unclaimed after that.
