We need your help to plant trees!

Would you like to be part of a tree planting record-breaking attempt?

On Saturday December 5th 2009 from 11.00am-12.00 we will be planting trees to develop our forest school area.

Whilst doing this we are taking part in 'Tree O'Clock'. This is a record breaking attempt by the BBC Breathing Places project to plant as many trees across Britain in this hour.

Can you help us?

We hope that families will come and enjoy this community tree planting occasion and help to create a breathing space at our school!

Refreshments will be provided by the Friends Of Recreation Road. If you can bring a spade to help with the job it will be appreciated!

Watch out for posters advertising this event and also coverage on the BBC! For more information please see www.bbc.co.uk/breathingplaces/trees

If you can help please complete the bottom of this letter and drop into the office by Friday November 20th.

Many Thanks

Nicola Cushion
