

The Rec Road Learner Values

These are the qualities that we aim to develop in our pupils, in order for them to become lifelong lovers of learning.

The Learner Values are developed through all aspects of the curriculum and every week we celebrate and thank pupils who've been great Learner Values role models.

Problem-Solver

I can find out what's wrong, what I can do, have a go and see if it works.
 I ask questions and test ideas when things get difficult.
 I consider different options and outcomes when faced with challenges.
Determined, investigate, inquisitive, ask questions, plan ahead, flexible, enquirer, predict, observe, vary approaches, listen to opinions, data.

Resilient

I know mistakes are okay because we can bounce back and we can ask for help if we need it.
 When learning is challenging, I keep thinking and trying to learn from my mistakes.
 I persevere when things get difficult and appreciate the value that mistakes provide.
Pick myself up, keep trying, know when to stop and ask for help, find new ways, persevere, learn from experiences, positive attitude.

Reflective

I can celebrate my successes and know my next steps.
 I evaluate my learning and actions, which helps me decide what to do next.
 I consider what I have done and know how to move forward.
Think about, change, proud, reflect, improve, evaluate, responsible, adaptable, consider the situation, look at outcomes, judge impact.

Creative

I can imagine, explore and experiment. I develop ideas by trying new things, asking questions and making links.
 I explore using my imagination.
 I give free rein to my imagination to explore new ideas.
 I think of things from different perspectives.
Imagine, explore, experiment, make links, reason, try new techniques, take risks, experiment, create, extend, question, research.

Caring

I know how to be kind to myself, to others and to the world.
 I know about people who look after us.
 I think of the impact my words and actions have on others and my environment.
 I actively show respect for myself, the world and others.
Caring, helpful, considerate, society, community, legacy, responsibilities, impacts, effects.

Collaborative

I can listen to others and think about their feelings.
 I can respect others' ideas and opinions
 I can work well, with and alongside others.
 I value, appreciate and build on the contributions of others.
 I listen genuinely and respond constructively.
Together, listening, share, take turns, respect / use other people's ideas, points of view, respect, bias, opinion.
